Branded stuff

Add your logo to a large range of merchandise that you can sell. from mugs to shirts and jute bags. Why not put your logo on it. Create a conversation starter for your customers. A conversation about you

Your general vending machine represents a massive opportunity for you to make further sales. Many of our customers have expanded their product range to make more profit and its great advertising too.

Thats where we come in .

We can do the hard work, you choose the the product or suggests what you would like. We can source and print the products. Where possible w get a sample over to you. And then arrange delivery direct to you, for you. It really couldnt be easier. One email or call and we do the rest.
